

The Voice Of Ethiopian radio service is established and started broadcasting in May 1999. Our mission is to promote peace, democracy and development of our country and provide balanced news and information from local and international sources.